

BOLLORÉ LOGISTICS OPENS TWO NEW OFFICES IN SPAIN

Bolloré Logistics Spain continues its deployment in Spain with the opening of two new offices in Vigo and Burgos both of them being depending from Bilbao Branch. By expanding its scope activity, Bolloré Logistics is strengthening its presence in Spain and demonstrates its willingness to offer its global customers and regional companies a personalised and local service but also to support large groups in their international development.

Located in the region of Castile and León, the Burgos office will allow Bolloré Logistics to develop its local business specially in the cosmetics vertical and to get closer to its customers and strategic partners. Strategically placed in the Galicia area, the Vigo office will support the development of the company's automotive vertical, strengthening its business partnerships and facilitating end-to-end solutions.

"The opening of these two new offices is a major step in our development strategy. It perfectly suits with the objective to accelerate our growth at regional level while reinforcing our relationships with our customers. We hope to extend our presence in the country in the near future capitalizing on our global network and expertise in key markets such as automotive and cosmetics." said Luis Martinez, Spain Managing Director of Bolloré Logistics.

Appointed at the head of the Burgos office, Tomás Alonso have a strong background and knowledge of the market. Coming from DB Schenker, he will responsible for reinforcing the cosmetics area for Bolloré Logistics. As for Jon Ander González, newcomer in the company, he will manage the Vigo Office. Having previously worked for GEFECO, he will use his extensive work experience to breathe a new life into the automotive vertical.
