

ÉRIC KALALA NSANTU, THE NEW CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF BOLLORE TRANSPORT & LOGISTICS IN DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF THE CONGO

The new Chief Executive Officer of Bolloré Transport & Logistics in the Democratic Republic of the Congo has officially taken up his functions.

A Congolese (DRC) national, Éric Kalala joined the teams of Bolloré Transport & Logistics in 2003, holding positions in Finance and Operations Division. He was previously responsible for the Katanga region, where he will be replaced in Lubumbashi by Rodolphe Kembukuswa Diwa, who has been with Bolloré Group for 30 years.

Éric Kalala possesses solid experience in mining logistics and financial management. He is a Business Engineering graduate of the Administration and Management Institute of Université Catholique de Louvain and holds a Master in International Management from HEC-Paris and a General Management Program diploma from Harvard Business School.

As the new Chief Executive Officer, he will be responsible for the development of Bolloré Transport & Logistics' shipping and logistics activities in Kinshasa. He takes over from Yves Debiesme, who is retiring.
