

BOLLORE TRANSPORT & LOGISTICS AT THE INTERNATIONAL PARIS AIR SHOW 2019

Bolloré Transport & Logistics, an expert in aerospace logistics for more than 60 years, will be present at the International Paris Air Show, which will take place from 17th to 23rd June 2019. On this occasion, the company will announce new development projects through the signature of several agreements and will also organize every day on its stand animations focused on its business expertise by region: Middle East and South Asia (Monday), Americas (Tuesday), Asia-Pacific (Wednesday), and Europe (Thursday). As a major player in logistics transformation, Bolloré Transport & Logistics will also present its latest solutions in terms of innovation to accelerate the digitization of the supply chain.

Today, Bolloré Transport & Logistics aims to pursue its international development with the recent opening of a new warehouse in Hamburg to reinforce its logistics network dedicated to aeronautics. In terms of services, it also strives to expand its network of AOG offices across the world to manage the most sensitive flows while continuing to optimize its processes in order to reduce costs and delays for the benefit of its customers.

"The International Paris Air Show will be an opportunity to highlight our expertise in the sector but also to announce the next steps of our development strategy. Thanks to our experience and agility, we are at the forefront of innovations that will transform the aeronautical logistics landscape of tomorrow." said Jerome Le Grand, Aerospace Product Director at Bolloré Logistics.
