

All united through shared values

The Bolloré Group is built on the commitment and loyalty of its employees around the world, the talented women and men who make a difference. Our sustainable performance is based on strong values that serve shared objectives and a long-term vision.

Humility

Respectful of others, we are grateful for each and everyone's contribution

Excellence

Demanding the best for our customers, we are constantly improving

Courage

Resilient, we move forward with boldness to meet our challenges

Agility & Innovation

Attentive to changes, we know how to adapt and dare to create value

Solidarity

Responsible and committed, we contribute to the development of the communities around us

Transportation and logistics

Communications

Electricity storage and systems

